EMPHATICALLY SO.

The Sugar Trust controls the sugar output of Cuba, and for that reason they want sugar to come in free of duty. This would save them $8,000,000 a year and would kill their competitors, the sugar beet industry, which pays $10,000,000 a year to American farmers for sugar beets.—Slayton (Min.) Gazette.

OLAA and McBRYDE DROP IN BIG SALES

In heavy business in both cases Olaa shows a decline of one-eighth and McBryde of seven-eighths on today's stock and bond list. There were sales of 185 and 315 shares of Olaa at 6.75 reported from between sessions, and 100, 50 and 350 shares of McBryde reported and 15 and 25 on the board at 6, making 500 of the former and 540 of the latter at the declines mentioned. Pioneer dropped a quarter point in a reported sale of 40 shares at 33.25. Onomea is unchanged at 58.75 for 25 shares in recess.

Of other than sugar stocks, Hilo railroad common advanced five-eighths to 8.875 on the board, and Brewery remained at 21.125 for 80 shares reported. A sale of $3,000 Hilo Extension sixes at 96.50 was reported.

DEATH OF POLLITZ MADE A DIFFERENCE

The San Francisco Call of September 5 says in its financial page:
"Hutchinson Sugar Plantation sold at $21 yesterday, which is a half point under the price it has been bringing for some time, and this fact was taken by some to show that the death of Edward Pollitz, meaning, as it does, the removal from important Hawaiian islands sugar companies of one of its most powerful executive minds, will lower prices of the stocks. Those who believe this express the opinion that the stocks, if they do lose on this account, probably will recover if the companies maintain their present prosperous condition."

MAUI NOTES

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

WAILUKU, Sept. 24.—The ladies of the Alexander House in Wailuku gave a very pleasant afternoon at home last Saturday, which gave an opportunity to the ladies of the community to meet Misses Starkweather and Holt, the new kindergarten teachers at Wailuku and at Kahului, and Mrs.
Alfred Martinson, who arrived on the last Honolulu from the Coast. The affair was much enjoyed by the large company of guests present. Mrs.
Jones sang most pleasantly during the afternoon.

Enos Vincent is the proud father of a son, born at 4 o'clock this morning. His arrival was not expected quite so soon. Both son and mother are doing splendidly. The father is the happiest man on Maui.

Rev. W. B. Oleson, secretary of the Hawaiian Board of Missions, and Rev.
John P. Erdman, superintendent of the Hawaiian committee of the same board, were visitors on Maui last week. They left on the Kilauea for Hawaii, where they are to attend the meeting of the Hawaii Association of Churches.

The new Axminster carpets of heavy grade that were placed in the Wailuku Union church last week and used for the first time on Sunday have attracted much attention, because of their beauty. They harmonize remarkably with the dark woodwork and the interior decorations of the church.

Mrs. H. B. Penhallow gave a delightful luncheon at her home last Saturday noon in honor of Mrs. D. H.
Case, who is soon to leave for a six months' vacation in the States. The ladies invited were Mrs. De Biots Penhallow, Mrs. W. A. MacKay, Mrs. $200.

Ellis Austin, Mrs. C. E. Copeland, Miss Charlotte L. Turner, Mrs. Enos Vincent, Mrs. R. A. Wadsworth, Mrs. V.
A. Vettesen, Mrs. C. C. Gossin, Mrs.
K. B. Dodge.

A large number of valuable books have been donated to the Maui Library Association by Mrs. Amelia Beckwith Hair. Several new books have been received this month and added to the shelves. Among them are two of Jane Addams—"The Spirit of Youth and the City Street" and "New Ideals of Peace."

Sweltering Chicago has consumed so many lemons through the hot spell that the price on them has risen to 75c a dozen, and there bids fair to be a lemon famine within a few days.

Two holdups held up the headquarters of the Teamsters' Union in San Francisco and got away with all the money in the safe, amounting to over
